

Abstract of the Disclosure

The probability of occurrence of post-recording erasure phenomena in which recorded data is erased is reduced by adding at the end of a sector block a repetition pattern 56 of a minimum bit length for that sector block.